

‘See Inside manufacturing’ activities
10-21 October 2011

Company	Date	Location	Region	Activity	Contact details
Allied Vehicles	Activities confirmed for 11,12 and 13 October with further details to be confirmed.	Glasgow	Scotland	Allied Vehicles is arranging opportunities for college, school staff and students to experience factory visits which illustrate the various aspects of automotive engineering development and manufacturing production.	To take part contact Carol Meldrum, Training & Recruitment Manager, Allied Vehicles. E-mail: carol.meldrum@alliedvehicles.co.uk Tel: 0141 336 1181
Aston Martin	27 October	Birmingham	West Midlands	Plans include engagement with engineering undergraduates and postgraduates at Birmingham University through a series of automotive design ‘master classes’ with students and Aston Martin staff.	For more information about the day and to find out about taking part, contact Anita Bestwick, Organisation Development Consultant, Aston Martin Lagonda. E-mail: abestwic@astonmartin.com
Bentley	October (dates to be confirmed).	Crewe	North West	Detailed plans to be confirmed, but preliminary arrangements include engagement with local schools and ‘hands on’ activities as part of the initiative.	For more information about the day and to find out about taking part, contact Franziska Rothe, Corporate and Government Affairs Manager, Bentley Motors Ltd. E-mail: Franziska.Rothe@bentley.co.uk
BMW Plant, Hams Hall	October (dates to be confirmed)	Hams Hall	West Midlands	Students and young people will be invited to take part in plant tours, ‘hands on’ activities and receive presentations from current and former apprentices at the plant.	For more information about the day and to find out about taking part contact Angela Konert, Government Affairs Executive, BMW Group UK.

				Further details to be confirmed.	E-mail: angela.konert@bmw.co.uk
Ford	October (dates to be confirmed)	Bridgend	South Wales	Students and young people from a select number of local schools in Bridgend will be invited to take part in plant tours, talk to plant staff about the range of careers available in the automotive industry and take part in competitive 'hands on' challenges.	For more information about the day and to find out about taking part, contact Christophe Clarke, Governmental Affairs manager, Ford. E-mail: cclarke3@ford.com
The Institute of the Motor Industry (IMI)	October (dates to be confirmed).	Manchester	North west England	Detailed plans to be confirmed, but preliminary arrangements include engagement with students, undergraduates and employers on the apprenticeship opportunities and benefits of career opportunities within the UK's automotive industry.	For more information about the day and to attend, Simon Bennett, PR Executive, IMI. Email: simonb@motor.org.uk
Jaguar Land Rover (JLR)	18, 19 and 20 October with further dates to be confirmed.	Halewood, Solihull and Gaydon	Midlands and North West.	JLR will host school children from primary schools on various days in October at its Business Partnership Centres in the West Midlands. There, they will be invited to take part in design/manufacturing challenges, hands on projects focussed on engineering and have the opportunity to take part in 'work inspiration' days, in order to learn more about working within the automotive sector.	For more information about the day and to attend, contact Marion Thomas, Education Business Centre Manager, JLR. Email: mthom144@jaguarlandrover.com
Johnson Matthey	21 November-3 December.	Royston	East England	Students will be invited to Johnson Matthey's Royston plant and receive presentations from current apprentices at the plant on the career opportunities within UK automotive.	For more information about the day and to find out about taking part, contact Guy Tremayne, Marketing Manager, Johnson Matthey. E-mail: guy.tremayne@matthey.com
Leyland Trucks	10-20 October	Leyland	North West	Leyland will open its doors to school children for ten days in October, offering activities on each day at its North West facility, aimed at demonstrating the practical application of engineering and manufacturing skills within the automotive sector.	For more information about the day and to find out about taking part, contact Alan Tonge, HR Director, Leyland Trucks.

				Teachers from schools local to the area are also welcome and families will be welcomed at weekends to engage with the planned activities as part of the initiative.	E-mail: AlanTonge@Leyland-Trucks.co.uk
McLaren Automotive	October (dates to be confirmed)	Woking	South East England	25 school children and five teachers from five different local primary schools in the Woking area near to McLaren Automotive's Technology Centre will be invited to take part in the 'McLaren Manufacturing Challenge' as part of the 'See Inside Manufacturing' initiative. In groups of five, the school children will take part in in-house competition heats, competing against other groups to manufacture a vehicle which is able to carry an object over a set distance as part of the challenge. The winning team will be decided by McLaren Automotive's Operational Director, Alan Foster, and the winning team will receive a tour of McLaren Automotive's production hall and Formula One workshops.	For more information about the day and to find out about taking part, contact George Farquhar, Vice President, Financial Dynamics. E-mail: George.farquhar@fd.com
Michelin Tyre PLC	October (dates to be confirmed).	Dundee	Scotland	Michelin is arranging for college, school staff and students to experience factory visits which illustrate the many varied career opportunities within the manufacturing sector (including engineering, design, ergonomics, health and safety, management, quality and IT support). Further details to be confirmed.	For more information about the day and to find out about taking part, contact Ian Peart at Michelin, Dundee. E-mail: ian.peart@uk.michelin.com
Michelin Tyre PLC	October (dates to be confirmed).	Stoke-on-Trent	West Midlands	Michelin is arranging for college, school staff and students to experience factory visits which illustrate the many varied career opportunities within the manufacturing sector (including engineering, design, ergonomics, health and safety, management, quality and IT support). Further details to be confirmed.	For more information about the day and to find out about taking part, contact Maria Gillan at Michelin, Stoke. E-mail: maria.gillan@uk.michelin.com
Michelin Tyre PLC	18 October and 7 November	Ballymena	Northern Ireland	Michelin is holding an open day for participating schools and is arranging for college, school staff and students to experience factory visits which illustrate the	For more information about the day and to find out about taking part, contact Jim Briggs at Michelin,

				many varied career opportunities within the manufacturing sector, (including engineering, design, ergonomics, health and safety, management, quality and IT support). Further details to be confirmed.	Ballymena. E-mail: jim.briggs@uk.michelin.com
Millbrook	October (dates to be confirmed)	Bedford	East of England	Students, graduates and college leavers are invited to one of two day events being hosted at Millbrook's automotive testing and R&D facilities in Bedford. Places will be issued on a first come, first served basis and the days will include tours of the facilities, presentations from senior members of staff about working at the facility and Q&A opportunities.	For more information about the day and to find out about taking part, contact Kevin Moxey, Group Head of Planning and Engineering Strategies. E-mail: Kevin.moxey@millbrook.co.uk
MINI Plant, Oxford	10 October	Oxford	South East	Students and young people will be invited to take part in group plant tours, on-site 'hands on' challenges and receive presentations from members of staff. There will also be a number of outreach activities with schools local to the plant areas. Further details to be confirmed.	For more information about the day and to find out about taking part contact Angela Konert, Government Affairs Executive, BMW Group UK. E-mail: angela.konert@bmw.co.uk
MINI Plant, Swindon	To be confirmed	Swindon	South West	Students and young people will be invited to take part in plant tours, on-site 'hands on' and receive presentations from members of staff. There will also be a number of outreach activities with schools local to the plant areas. Further details to be confirmed.	For more information about the day and to find out about taking part contact Angela Konert, Government Affairs Executive, BMW Group UK. E-mail: angela.konert@bmw.co.uk
Nissan	10-14 October	Cranfield R&D facility	East of England	Nissan will host two daily sessions for local school children, offering a range of 'hands on' activities, tours of their testing facility and presentations from recent	For more information about the day and to find out about taking part, contact Dawn Waugh,

				graduates about working within R&D in the automotive sector. Sessions will take place in the morning and afternoon of each day between 10-14 October and will accommodate a maximum of 30 attendees per session.	Communications, Nissan. E-mail: Daun.waugh@nissan-nmuk.co.uk Tel: 0191 415 2764
Nissan	10-21 October	Sunderland	North East	Nissan will host two daily sessions for local school children, offering a range of 'hands on' activities, tours of their testing facility and presentations from recent graduates about working within manufacturing in the automotive sector. Sessions will take place in the morning and afternoon of each day between 10-21 October and will accommodate a maximum of 30 attendees per session.	For more information about the day and to find out about taking part, contact Dawn Waugh, Communications, Nissan. E-mail: Daun.waugh@nissan-nmuk.co.uk Tel: 0191 415 2764
Rockingham	12 October 2011	Rockingham Racing Circuit, Corby, Northamptonshire.	East Midlands	Schools, colleges, youth groups and universities are invited to attend Rockingham Racing Circuit for the 'Big Industry, Big Opportunity programme of activities being staged as part of 'See Inside manufacturing'. There will be six zones at the Rockingham racing circuit; a motor sport zone, a ride and drive zone, an enterprise zone, a future zone, a services zone and a workshop zone. Young people will be able to visit any of the six zones and explore a different aspect of the automotive industry and understand more about the training and employment opportunities it has.	Cost: £3 per young person. Accompanying adults free of charge. For more information about the day and to find out about taking part, contact Chris Goodwin, Enterprise Education Foundation. To download the 'Big Industry – Big opportunity' flyer, click here. E-mail: Chris.goodwin@rockingham.co.uk

Rolls Royce Motor Cars Limited	Activities planned from 10-21 October.	Goodwood	South West	Activities as part of the initiative include a series of 'Road Shows' to local schools in the area, which include talks from apprentices about what it is like to work in the automotive industry and the training and skills opportunities. Further details to be confirmed.	For more information about the day and to find out about taking part contact Angela Konert, Government Affairs Executive, BMW Group UK. E-mail: angela.konert@bmw.co.uk
Schaeffler	October (dates to be confirmed).	Wales	Wales	Detailed plans to be confirmed, but preliminary arrangements include engagement with local schools and 'hands on' activities as part of the initiative.	For more information about the day and to find out about taking part contact Donna Williams-Bevan, Training Officer, Schaeffler UK. E-mail: donna.williams-bevan@schaeffle
Toyota	Events planned for the week commencing 10 October.	Burnaston	East Midlands	Detailed plans to be confirmed, but preliminary arrangements aim to offer students a first-hand experience of a modern manufacturing plant, using talks, presentations and engaging activities to showcase the career opportunities within manufacturing and inspire the next generation of engineers, technicians and production teams. Informative half day sessions will be offered to students at the Burnaston plant and Toyota staff will be on-hand to answer questions and explain the different routes into manufacturing.	For more information about the day and to find out about taking part contact Nick Freeman, Senior Manager, Corporate planning & External Affairs, Toyota. E-mail: Nick.Freeman@toyotauk.com
Vauxhall Motors	10,12, 17 and 19 October	Luton	East of England	Detailed plans to be confirmed, but preliminary arrangements include morning and afternoon sessions with presentations from staff and 'hands on' activities with young people from local schools.	For more information about the day and to find out about taking part contact James Maccoll, Public Policy Manager at General Motors. E-mail: james.maccoll@vauxhall.co.uk

Vauxhall Motors	October (dates to be confirmed)	Ellesmere Port	North West	Detailed plans to be confirmed.	For more information about the day and to find out about taking part contact James Maccoll, Public Policy Manager at General Motors. E-mail: james.maccoll@vauxhall.co.uk
-----------------	---------------------------------	----------------	------------	---------------------------------	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------